

Violence against people with disabilities

A course taught by Kerstin Kristensen and Denisse Cresso
Monday 4 September 9:00 – 15:00, at Stigamót, Laugarvegur 170, 2nd floor
Registration is open at: <https://goo.gl/forms/zDktxKXytXdsBCIq1>

Program:

What about violence?

Defining violence. Short film about Fredrika who is deaf.

Living with violence in everyday life

Looking at the consequences of living with violence in everyday life and having a disability. A short film about Siri who is blind.

Lunch

Violence and everyday support

What does violence look like for people with disabilities that are dependent on everyday support?

Talk and ask about violence

Workshop with the tool Talk about violence with ACC. A short film about Afsoon who has a learning disability.

How can you work preventive?

On prevention programs and accessible questionnaires.

*Lunch will be provided.

*Sign language interpretation available (see registration form).

Welcome and please spread the word to others!